The Clapp Family

"Joseph Clapp, a lineal descendant of George Gilson Clapp, M.D., married Mercy Carpenter, and died in Dutchess County, N. Y., about 1776. At least, five of his children came to Canada, to wit, three brothers, Joseph, Benjamin and James, and two sisters, namely, Rhoda, who married Mr. Losee, and settled near Bath, and Ursula, who married Sampson Striker, and died in Hallowell.

"Sampson Striker, and his brother-in-law, Joseph Clapp, then eighteen years of age, came together to Ontario, via Lake Champlain, Montreal, and up the St. Lawrence with a sleigh and a pair of horses, in the month of January, 1887, and finally settled in Adolphustown, having been twenty-eight days on the journey from their home in Dutchess County. This Joseph Clapp, the sixth remove from Dr. George Gilson, at first lived with his brother-in-law, Sampson Striker, but soon after his arrival in Canada, he ~ married Nancy Millar, a niece of John Roblin, who came over with the Roblin family from Dutchess County. In their old home in the Empire State, the Clapps were members of the Society of Friends, commonly known as Quakers, but John Roblin was early converted to the Methodist Church by Fathers William Losee and Darius Dunham. In February, 1792, when Rev. William Losee took up a subscription list, to erect a church on Hay Bay (one of the first Methodist churches to be erected in Canada) we find the name of Joseph Clapp as a contributor to the building fund.

"The Clapps have been prominent characters in the municipal life of Adolphustown since that June day on which Major VanAlstine and his party of United Empire Loyalists landed on Hay Bay shore. From the records that have been preserved we find that Benjamin Clapp was in 1793 appointed a Fence Viewer and Overseer of the Highways, and that Benjamin and Gilbert Clapp at different times held each of the various offices at the disposal of the yearly town meetings; and in 1837 we find Reuben B. Clapp appointed Town Clerk.

"In a list of the inhabitants of Adolphustown in 1794 we find the names of two brothers, Benjamin and Joseph Clapp. Mr. Casey mentions a John Clapp as a soldier in Burgoyne's army during the war of the Revolution, and we know John on the 26th January, 1829, attended a sale of the property of Daniel Haight, of Adolphustown, and purchased a pocket compass, a toasting fork, and numerous other articles for which he paid the cash. The first named took up eighty acres on the west half of lot 13, 3rd concession of Adolphustown, and the latter settled on the one hundred acres west-half of lot 25 of the same concession, where he lived and died.

"Joseph probably traded his eighty acres for supplies and stock before he crossed the Bay to Prince Edward County. He finally located at Milford, where he was the owner of several hundred acres. The greater portion of the land under the old law of primogeniture fell to Joseph's eldest son, Philip. Philip was killed by lightning September 16th, 1832, and left a large estate to his young son, Philip, who, at maturity, gave three hundred acres to his two sisters, Nancy and Sarah. Nancy married and settled on hers; but Sarah married in North Marysburg and disposed of her share. In this way, with a subdivision going on with each fresh generation, it is easily understood how many of the large tracts of land held by the pioneers have dwindled down into small farms, or are now not even held in the old name.

"A love for machinery would seem always to have been a characteristic trait of the Clapp family. When the pioneer, Joseph, landed in Marysburg he built the first lumber mill in the township. The location of the mill was the origin of the present name of Milford.

"The township was then covered densely with pine and oak. A trade in this lumber was being inaugurated with Europe, by way of Quebec. Sport was excellent and game abounded. David B. Clapp, of Picton, a grandson of the pioneer, remembers seeing a big buck shot in the sixties.

"Joseph Clapp does not seem to have been a very strong adherent of the Friends in Canada, for he took up arms in 1812. While performing military duties that year he succumbed to a malady contracted at Kingston. He has left many descendants scattered throughout the Bay of Quinte district, holding important positions in public affairs and commercial enterprises.

"James Clapp, the second son of the pioneer Joseph, married an Irish girl called Jane Sproule. She came to Canada with her brothers, and made the whole of the journey from Montreal in Batteau's. The slow progress made may be inferred from the fact that the boat had to be towed with its head pointed outwards. As the current then flowed between the prow and the shore, the batteau was kept from beaching. Joseph, a son of James Clapp, was a Captain in the Sixteenth Battalion of the Prince Edward volunteers, and served in the Fenian Raid in 1866.

"James A. Clapp, son of Samuel and Sarah Fralick Clapp, and grandson of the Pioneer, has now lived for many years in Picton, where he has occupied the highest civic position, and is, perhaps, the town's most prominent citizen.

"Another distinguished member of this famous old family is R. M. Clapp, M.D., MP.P., now living at Mildmay, County of Bruce. The Doctor is a highly educated physician, having graduated at Toronto, and subsequently pursued his studies at Vienna, Berlin, and Leipsic. He enjoys a large and lucrative practice, but still finds time for political interest and public service. He was Reeve of Carrick, 1898-9, and stood for the Provincial Parliament in the riding of South Bruce at the general elections of 1902, but was defeated. In 1905 he was returned for this riding, being its first Conservative member. His predecessors in service were: Hon. Edward Blake, and Hon. Speaker Wells.

"Reuben Clapp, heretofore mentioned as Town Clerk of Adolphustown, in 1837, was a son of Gilbert and Elizabeth Clapp. His grandson, Charles S. Clapp, the well-known merchant of Belleville, has in his possession the old family bible, showing the genealogy of this family for more than a century. From this book, yellow with age, the historian may glean the fact that on June 13th, 1826, Reuben B. Clapp married Elida Canniff, a member of the well-known Canniff family, and first cousin of Dr. Canniff; the historian, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. McDowell.

"Charles S. Clapp, youngest son of Phillip and Sarah Van Tassel Clapp, and grandson of Reuben B. Clapp, was born February 20, 1864, in what is now the City of Belleville. He attended school in the county of Northumberland; and, returning to Belleville about 1880, he at once sought employment in the bakery and confectionery business. Having thoroughly mastered the details of this business, he opened a store on his own account, in 1896, and his business has steadily developed and improved until, to-day, he owns and operates one of the most up-to-date confectionery and bakery establishments in the Bay of Quinte region.

"On October 27, 1896, Mr. Clapp married Ida Story. They attend the Methodist Church. Mr. Clapp is a Liberal in politics, and his fraternal affiliations include the Masons and the I.O.F.

"In 1880, Mr. Clapp joined the 15th Regiment, and, in 1885, was gazetted sergeant, and served through the Northwest Rebellion as a member of Company A., Midland Battalion, commanded by Lieut.-Colonel Williams. In 1890 he was gazetted as 1st Lieutenant, and served until he severed his connection with the regiment in 1902. His military record extended over twenty-two years, during which period he was decorated with the long service medal of the Imperial Government, and a medal for gallant service in the field during the Northwest Rebellion.

"Another member of this numerous family was Elias Clapp, who married Mary Dorland, of the pioneer Dorland family. Of their six sons and three daughters, John married Sarah Smith, and had issue: [the issue are named.]".

Gatrey:

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904, page 5.

"His daughter Gatrey is the subject of a well-known incident that happened when she was a child five years old. The family was living in the fifth concession of Sidney, and the child was sent on an errand to the house of a neighbour, Duncan Irvine, some miles distant. The forest intervened, and when darkness approached and she had not returned, the parents became alarmed. As it was evident that Gatrey had wandered from the trail and was lost, the two families instituted a search. Several Indian scouts and hunters were engaged, and for miles around the woods were searched; but the night was dark, and, to add to the difficulty, a storm of rain and hail set in. On Monday every settler and brave in the neighborhood turned out to assist; on Tuesday, the searchers had increased to three hundred. They shouted, fired guns, and looked in every hole and brush heap; caves of bears and other wild animals were searched. On Friday, Indian runners were sent up and down the Bay to call for help to find the body, as it was supposed by then that the child must be dead. The force increased to five hundred. They organized into squads and scoured the forest in every direction, but their efforts were unavailing until, just as they were about to abandon the search, the child was found alive. The joyful news was proclaimed by shouts that made the forest ring with the glad acclaim. Gatrey had wandered eight days in the forest, and had subsisted on wintergreens. The nights were cold and she was barefooted and thinly clad. One night an animal of some kind lay upon her cold feet, and lest it might kill her, she was afraid to stir. Just before she was found, she had lain down to die, having previously repeated a verse she had learned of her prayers. She was reduced to a skeleton, and it was some time before she recovered from the terrible experience. For months she shrank with terror at the approach of darkness; but in time the baneful effects of her eight day's exposure to October weather in a Canadian forest passed away, and she grew into strong and vigorous womanhood."

Family lived in Thurlow Township.

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 1-12:

"Two successful, scientific farmers who each raise as much crop per acre as any other man in the county are Manchester and Selden T. Ketcheson, sons of John Vandewater Ketcheson and great-grand-sons of the pioneer loyalist, William. Born and educated in Thurlow, they are both married and are respected as good citizens. Manchester Ketcheson, the elder of the two, belongs to the Methodist Church, to which he contributes liberally, not alone to its moral, but also to its financial needs. He is a Bible class teacher who takes charge in the absence of the Sunday School Superintendent. A man of good executive ability, he farms his one hundred and fifty acres in a model manner. He is a Liberal who as a citizen ranks among the best in the county. The younger brother, Selden T. Ketcheson, has been for many years trustee of the old White's Methodist Church. His wife, before her marriage was organist in the church at Ernesttown, and since her marriage she has acted in the same capacity in her husband's church. On the two hundred and fifteen acres he owns in the second concession he has always had on hand ten to a dozen Clydesdale horses ready to the buyer. As a Liberal, he takes much interest in politics. He is a member of the Lodge 81, I.O.O.F., Belleville."

An interesting story appeared in the Chico press after his death:

Hubbs' Dying Statement

Chico, California, July 27. - Cornelius Hubbs, who was shot by his rival, Raymond Bierce, yesterday, who afterward committed suicide, died today. Mrs. Hubbs' wound is not serious.

Before dying Hubbs mad an ante-mortem statement to the district attorney. He said that when he visited Mrs. Barney's house with his wife yesterday, he found Bierce there. Bierce abused them and tried to quarrel. Hubbs and wife started to go, when Bierce, who a moment before had stepped into an adjoining room reappeared and fired, the ball striking Hubbs. Hubbs returned the fire, and four shots were fired by each man. Hubbs told his wife to leave and went out the door himself. When he found his wife was not with him, he returned, and hearing two more shots in the room, broke open the door, as Bierce had locked. He grappled with Bierce and threw him to the floor. Hubbs states that Mrs. Barney made no effort to stop Bierce's shooting, but tried to get him (Hubbs) to let Bierce up, although the latter had been thrown to the floor.
