1. Peter Rose #126765, b. 1779,¹ d. 17 JAN/June 1857/59 in Prince Edward County, Ontario,² buried in Rose Cemetery, North Marysburgh, Prince Edward County, Ontario.²

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 69 - 71

"The name of Rose is one with which Canadians are familiar. There are various families of the name distinguished in different ways in Ontario; but there is none better known, or more highly esteemed than the family descended from Peter Rose, who settled in Prince Edward County in the early part of the last century.

"Peter Rose knew a time when it was hard to maintain communications with the outer world. Usually in the fall of the year he joined with neighbors, who were hardly near, but far apart, in chartering a small vessel, in which they would set sail from South Marysburg for Kingston, carrying with them the produce of their farms, for which they bartered for clothes, boots, harness, etc. And sometime when they were in sore need of shoes, but found it difficult, or perhaps impossible to go so far, they rested content with some ill-tanned leather from the hide of an ox which their own hands had killed.

"The settlers were to a large extent deeply religious. The expression is used advisedly; not superficially, but in the core of their nature, they were religious, and none more so than Peter Rose. Not wholly, perhaps, but in some appreciable measure to their early training was it due, that the Rose family has taken a leading position in the religious world. At the Pioneer's humble home, the travelling preacher, who had in these times to cover large tracts of country, was always sure of breathing the atmosphere congenial to his pious feelings; a hearty welcome greeted him, and a cherry God-speed sent him on his way rejoicing.

"Peter Rose was politically in unison with his neighbors in cherishing a preference for British institutions, and (though as peaceably disposed as any member of the Society of Friends) as good a loyalist at heart as any among them. And this trait is quite as characteristic of his descendants, as are the religious tendencies which they so markedly inherit. A glance at the genealogy, will show with how many of these old loyalist families the descendants of the Pioneer have become related by marriage. The Pioneer himself, who married twice, had for his first wife, Winnifred Burns, and for his second, Christiana Bongard. And glancing down the long list of descendants, the following are some of the names which will be recognised as standing high, if the expression may be used, on the honor list. These are the Ackermans, the Minakers, the Welbanks, the Scotts, the Dulmages, the Whattams, the Hudgins, the Bongards, etc., a galaxy of worthy and honored names."

Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte, 1904; pages 69 - 71

"Of his eleven children - nine sons and two daughters - the second son, Samuel, who died in 1890, in his eighty-third year, made himself a name which the Methodists, especially of Canada, will not willingly let die. As the son of the pioneer Peter Rose, the ordination of Samuel into the Methodist ministry was a matter of no little interest, and when in course of time, during which he had struck deep into the affections of the people, the honorary degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him, the Methodists of Prince Edward County, felt a reflected honor. This distinguished man had two sons who became at least equally distinguished. By his second wife, Mary Street, daughter of John and Susannah Boyce Street, there were born to him John E. and Samuel P. The first of these became the Hon. John Edward Rose. Born in 1844, he graduated at the age of twenty at the Victoria University, Cobourg, and passed on through the intermediate legal stages to his LL.D. in 1885. He was called to the Bar in 1867 (sic), was created a Q.C. in 1881, and was made Puisne Judge of the Common Pleas Division of the High Court of Justice of Ontario in 1883. He was also a Senator of Victoria University, and no better attestation of the high opinion of his legal knowledge could have been given than by his appointment in 1886, and again in 1896, to be a commissioner for the revision of the statutes of Ontario. He married Kate, a daughter of D. McDonald of Toronto."

Leland:

PEARSALL, Leland Fred

Born May 23, 1921, "100 years", passed away April 7, 2022 at the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital.

Meeting his goal of 100 yrs was one of the best days of his life. He was a 5th generation farmer on the family farm working hard and enjoyed a long, full and very healthy life. He had the enjoyment of many friendships and married to the love of his life and business partner, Barbara, for 76.5 yrs. He always said that he lived at the best of times to see so many changes like walking behind a plough all day to prepare a field, to the big tractors of today sowing his fields in a day. He became very fit and strong, laughing about those thinking they could arm wrestle this young skinny guy and underestimating his strength. He milked cows, then moved to beef cattle and finally was a Drover with Ross Mangan, a cattle buyer. "I've been in most barns in this County". He had so many stories and they always ended with how he treated people honestly. Honesty was a strong value that he held high and always lived by. He loved helping people and supported farmers to get their herd going or sitting with farmers to help and teach them how to buy good cattle for reasonable prices at the sales barns. A fellow farmer with a loaded truck and a flat tire prompted Leland to stop and load the man's cow onto his truck and took her to the sales barn allowing the man to fix his tire and still get to see his cow sold.

Dancing was a great joy for both parents and he was dancing on his 95th birthday and doing the old fashioned waltz like a pro. He had his trade mark quick sense of humour. He was still making us all laugh right up until the day before he went to hospital. He believed that you add 7 minutes to your life with every laugh you have. Leland had the distinction of being a lifetime donor to the Picton Blood Donor Clinic and a Life member of the Picton Elks Lodge.

He is predeceased by his parents Rodman "Earl" Pearsall and Eva Viola Sullivan and his daughter Evva "Roanne" Therrien, and his sister Reta Brummell and brother-in-law Marshall Brummell. Leland will be sadly missed by daughter Rilla Rhodes (Leith), son-in-law Jack Therrien, grandsons Dustin Therrien (Crystal) and Derek Therrien. Remembered by his great grandchildren as GG pop to Arlo, Deacon, and Raya Therrien.
